

DIPLOMA IN OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Institute of Development Management Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) program responds to the growing demand for employees in the area of health and safety. Graduates will be able to: interpret OHS legislation, develop OHS/Loss-Control Programs, conduct audits and inspections of existing OHS and environmental programs, and design and deliver effective OHS training programs for workers.

DURATION

- Normal (Years) 2 years
- Part-Time : 3 years

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- O'level certificate with a minimum of 3 credits include English and two passes OR
- An assessed equivalent entry qualification, which may include prior learning

MODULE ORGANISATION

Year 1: Semester 1

Academic and Study Skills
Introduction to information and Communication Technology
Introduction to Occupational Health and Safety
Occupational Health and Safety Law

Year 1: Semester 11

Occupational Health and Safety Science
Principles of Management
Risk Management
Practicum / attachment

Year 2: Semester 1

Research Methods
Occupational Hygiene
Ergonomics and Work Design
Project Management

Year 2: Semester 11

Workplace Compensation and Injury
Management
Occupational Safety and Health
Management
Research Project
Practicum / attachment

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Musawenkhosi Zwane
mzwane@idmbls.ac.sz

Margaret Bhembe
mbhembe@idmbls.ac.sz

Tel: 25504085